On Road, Virginia based singer/songwriter Mike Mulvaney presents an eclectic mix of original country/folk and jazz/blues/rock-tinged material with a studio band featuring multi-instrumentalist Paul Brier who also co-produced the CD. Mike's musical styles remind me of early Jesse Colin Young (ex-Youngbloods). This very entertaining CD opens with "Hot Wash With A Cold Rinse," a feel-good number that kicks off with a bluesy acoustic guitar and jaw's, harp! Mike wraps up the CD with several acoustic solo versions of pure blues songs of the masters (Howlin' Wolfs "Rollin' And Tumblin'," Ledbelly's "Midnight Special," as well as songs by Bukka White and Willie Dixon). A Dixieland arrangement of "Last Call For Alcohol" closes this special little package with over 68 minutes of music and 16 songs. Be sure to catch this enchanting entertainer when he performs live in the area.
